Professional Photography Policies

- Photographers must communicate to their clients that no one is allowed to park outside of the parking lot.

WHILE YOU ARE AT THE FARM

- Owners must always know your location, for the safety of you and your clients. The tree farm is a large acreage with hidden drop-offs and other safety hazards.
- Children must be always supervised by parents.
- No smoking is allowed.
- There are no public restrooms available for use.
- Animals must be on a leash; waste cleaned up and disposed.
- Do not leave any personal items unattended. We are not responsible for anything lost, broken, stolen, or left behind.
- Respect the work and space of other photographers who may be around the farm.
- Those not following any of these policies will be asked to put away their equipment and leave the farm.

WHEN YOU LEAVE THE FARM

1. Photographers must check out at the main house after their last client, enabling the owner to know the property is safely clear of visitors.
2. If applicable, you will receive back the balance of your deposit.
3. If photographer has spent more than 4 hours on the farm, you pay the balance at check-out.

I, the undersigned, of legal age, on behalf of myself and the group, organization, or clients I represent _____ (Photography Business Name) hereby indemnify and hold Cruise In Trees Christmas Tree Farm harmless for any personal injury, lost or stolen articles or damaged property by anyone using the farm facilities or on the farm premises.

I acknowledge the responsibility to communicate policy rules and liability to my clients prior to the photo session. Photographers without permission, and in violation of any part of policy, will be asked to leave immediately and will not be allowed to photograph on the farm again.
